

Duke TIP 2006 Distinguished Alumni Awards

The Distinguished Alumni Awards are given annually to recognize significant contributions made by Duke TIP alumni in the categories of Community Service, the Arts, and Career or Profession. Duke TIP congratulates these extraordinary individuals on their achievements.

Karl Douglass Community Service

Karl is being honored for his extensive community service that includes major leadership roles in the betterment and revitalization of his community and for his significant contributions as a participant in a mentoring organization for African-American men and boys.

TIP courses

'81 Writing I; '82 Writing II; '83 Humanities

Education

Yale University '90

Profession

2nd Vice President, Director of Licensing, AFLAC

Dean Karlan Career/Profession

Dean is being honored for his professional research and personal activism on resolving the issues of poverty. He uses insights from psychology and behavioral economics to examine economic and policy issues and then help design programs that directly address the impoverished area's needs.

TIP Courses

'82 both terms Mathematics
'83 both terms Chemistry and Statistics
'84 both terms Writing I and Computer Science
'85 both terms Writing II and Physics II

TIP Summer Employment

'92, '93, '94, '97, '98, '99
TA (one term) and Instructor for Money and Banking, Finance, and Game Theory

Education

University of Virginia '90; University of Chicago Harris Graduate School of Public Policy, Master's in Public Policy '97; University of Chicago Graduate School of Business, M.B.A. '97; M.I.T., Ph.D. in Development Economics and Public Finance '02

Profession

Assistant Professor in the Department of Economics at Yale University

Jennifer Wiley Career/Profession

Jennifer is being honored for her expertise and research in the field of cognitive psychology. She has published articles in prestigious journals, serves on three editorial boards, and has been awarded several large research grants from highly competitive agencies. She also teaches and mentors graduate students.

TIP Courses

'81 Mathematics; '82 Mathematics;
'83 Statistics; '84 Psychology

TIP Employment

Research Assistant 1/89 – 8/90

Education

Duke University '88
University of Pittsburgh, Ph.D. in Cognitive Psychology '96

Profession

Associate Professor in the Department of Psychology at the University of Illinois at Chicago

To nominate a Duke TIP alumnus/alumna for the 2007 Distinguished Alumni Awards or to see past years' winners, visit www.tip.duke.edu/about/distinguished\_alumni\_award.